Today's songs focus on understanding, listening and accepting God's word, just as Ezekiel does in the first reading. Saint Paul speaks of accepting the will of God in the second reading also. Psalm 123 reminds us that our eyes should be fixed on the Lord asking for mercy. Our opening song affirms that our God is merciful and kind.

DISCOVER A BEAUTIFUL FAITH IN THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

G.K. Chesterton once wrote, "The difficulty in explaining 'why I am a Catholic' is that there are ten thousand reasons all amounting to one reason: that Catholicism is true." Nearly 2,000 years ago, Jesus Christ founded the Catholic Church to preserve the truth He gave us and hand it down through the centuries, helping people all around the world encounter the love of God in every age and in every corner of the earth.

Over the years, there have been an untold number of questions and objections raised about the Catholic Church's teachings and practices. The answers are there, and it's worth your time to find them. As the Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen once said, "There are not even 100 people in this country who hate the Catholic Church, but there are millions who hate what they think the Catholic Church to be."

The Lord wants us all to know and understand His truth, so we can embrace it wholeheartedly and live by it. Christ reminds us, "The truth shall make you free" (John 8:32).
