Father Thomas' Message Corner

Christ is our light, our hope and our salvation. Isaiah prophesied about the people of darkness, burdened and full of gloom who saw the light of Christ. With His truth the yokes of their troubles were lightened giving them a joyful spirit and renewed hope. Paul admonishes the people who said they were followers of the Apostles, instructing them that there is only one Lord, Jesus Christ, who is the light for all people. In the Gospel it is Christ who calls his disciples to leave their nets, their present lives and follow him. We share in all of the messages for when we leave out anxieties of our present lives at the foot of Jesus, we are allowed to joyfully embrace the message of His salvation. In knowing His truth, our lives should reflect our service to Jesus with humility, patience, and forgiveness, ever striving to be more like Him.

Adult Program Resumes:
"Grow Closer to God. One of the biggest challenges people have in relationships is effective communication. Failure to communicate is the biggest reason for divorce and unhappy relationships. If we struggle to communicate with people who we can see, it is no surprise we struggle to communicate with God who we can't see. Our adult program after mass resumes on Sunday January 25th. Come and see ways we can overcome this."

St. Anthony - The Rosary will be prayed before the 10:30 Mass every Sunday beginning this Sunday January 25, 2026. The Rosary will be audio broadcast through our speaker system and begin at approximately 9:50 am. If any parishioner is interested in leading a "live" Rosary prayer for future Sundays, please contact Fr. Thomas.

Please remember Sacred Silence in the Sanctuary to allow others personal reflection and prayer time at the start of mass.

The Deadline for Bulletin submissions is Wednesday at Noon. The Deadline for Mass Announcements is Friday by 9:00 a.m. Thank you.

Meditation: Do you know the joy and freedom of the good news (Gospel) of the kingdom of God? John the Baptist's enemies had sought to silence him, but the good news of God's kingdom of salvation cannot be silenced. As soon as John had finished his testimony Jesus began his in Galilee. Galilee was at the crossroads of the world and much traffic passed through this little region. It had been assigned to the tribes of Asher, Naphtali and Zebulun when the Israelites first came into the land (see Joshua 9). For a long time it had been under Gentile occupation (non-Jewish nations).

Jesus brings the light and truth of salvation to the world

The prophet Isaiah foretold that the good news of salvation would reach Jews and Gentiles in the "land beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations" (Isaiah 9:1). Jesus begins the proclamation of the Gospel here to fulfill the word of God. The Old Testament prophets spoke of God's promise to send a Redeemer who would establish God's rule. That time is now fulfilled in Jesus who brings the light and truth of the Gospel to the world.

The "good news" brings peace, hope, truth, promise, immortality, and salvation

Jesus takes up John's message of repentance and calls his hearers to believe in the good news he has come to deliver. What is the good news which Jesus brings? It is the good news of peace - the Lord comes to reconcile and restore us to friendship with God. The good news of hope - the Lord comes to dwell with us and to give us a home with him in his heavenly kingdom. The good news of truth - the Lord Jesus sets us free from the lies and deception of Satan and opens our mind to understand the truth and revelation of God's word (John 8:32). The good news of promise - Jesus fulfills the promise of God to reward those who seek him with the treasure of heaven. The good news of immortality - Jesus overcomes sin and death for us in order to raise our lowly bodies to be like his glorious body which will never die again. And the good news of salvation - the Lord Jesus delivers us from every fear, every sin, and every obstacle that would keep us from entering his everlasting kingdom of righteousness, peace, and joy.

The Gospel is the power and the wisdom of God - both power to change and transform our lives and wisdom to show us how to live as sons and daughters of our Father in heaven. Through the gift of the Holy Spirit the Lord makes it possible for us to receive his word with faith and to act upon it with trust and obedience.
