Psalm 15

Father Thomas' Message Corner

We live in a society that expects us to be busy at all times. Education, work, household responsibilities, events for children and family, medical appointments...on and on, but in those busy calendars that we keep how much of our time do we devote to God? Martha was angry with Mary that she was not attentive to the details of serving their guest. Mary, on the other hand, heard Christ. How often do we schedule other things instead of making time for God? Is He our priority? He should be. Perhaps we rise in the morning and we are "Too tired", or there is an event that we really want to attend—but it coincides with the time we would normally be honoring God. That is what the evil one wants—for us to be so busy, tired, or troubled that we do not seek the presence of God. What God wants is for us to honor Him, always. He should be our first and foremost love. Worshipping Him should be our priority. When you are working on your calendars, make sure that His time is written in ink. The other things may be penciled in accordingly. Make time for God and everything else will fall into place.

Mass Intentions for this week are being offered by Fr. Thomas Dharelli at Our Lady of Fatima Shrine (Lewistown, NY)

†Christopher Anthony, Brad Grishaber, †Jeff Erwin, †Michael & Frangie Sadd
Deacon David Wuletich will conduct the Communion Services for us.

Charleston Catholic High School is seeking a high school theology teacher for the 2025-2026 school year. The theology program forms students intellectually, morally and spiritually through Catholic teaching, striving to help students grow in faith by fostering gospel values.

The candidate should be a practicing Catholic, have knowledge of Catholic teaching, hold at least a Bachelor's degree in a relevant field, and demonstrate a willingness to pursue certification as specified by the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston.

Interested candidates should send a resume and cover letter to colleen.hoyer@charlestoncatholic-crw.org.

SACRED SILENCE IN CHURCH

Please remember to maintain a sacred silence when you are in the main body of the church, especially before Mass. This allows others to pray and sets a very important example for the younger members of our community who are still learning about the sacred nature of the church. If you need to talk with someone, simply move to the vestibule, or into one of the side areas and make sure that the door is closed behind you.

You may converse with each other after the completion of the mass in sanctuary.
Thank you.

Bulletin & Mass Announcements — The deadline this week for bulletin announcements is Wednesday at 12:00 p.m. & for Mass announcements is Friday at 9:00 a.m. Thank you!

Meditation: Does the peace of Christ reign in your home and in your personal life? Jesus loved to visit the home of Martha and Mary and enjoyed their gracious hospitality. In this brief encounter we see two very different temperaments in Martha and Mary. Martha loved to serve, but in her anxious manner of waiting on Jesus, she caused unrest. Mary, in her simple and trusting manner, waited on Jesus by sitting attentively at his feet. She instinctively knew that what the Lord and Teacher most wanted at that moment was her attentive presence.

Give your concerns and pre-occupations to the Lord
Anxiety and preoccupation keep us from listening and from giving the Lord our undivided attention. The Lord bids us to give him our concerns and anxieties because he is trustworthy and able to meet any need we have. His grace frees us from needless concerns and preoccupation. Do you seek the Lord attentively? And does the Lord find a welcomed and honored place in your home?

Always welcome the Lord into your home and heart
The Lord Jesus desires that we make a place for him, not only in our hearts, but in our homes and in the daily circumstances of our lives as well. We honor the Lord when we offer to him everything we have and everything we do. After all, everything we have is an outright gift from God (1 Chronicles 29:14). Paul the Apostle urges us to give God glory in everything: "Whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him" (Colossians 3:17).

When you sit, eat, sleep and when you entertain your friends and guests, remember that the Lord Jesus is also the guest of your home. Scripture tells us that when Abraham opened his home and welcomed three unknown travelers, he welcomed the Lord who blessed him favorably for his gracious hospitality (Genesis 18:1-10; Hebrews 13:2). The Lord wants us to bring him glory in the way we treat others and use the gifts he has graciously given to us. God, in turn, blesses us with his gracious presence and fills us with joy.
