Psalm 66

Father Thomas' Message Corner

When we go on vacation we pack numerous bags of all sorts of articles of clothing, toiletries, and comfort items. We might include snacks, electronic devices, extra cash and gifts for those we may be visiting. In the Gospel, Jesus sent Seventy-two laborers into every town. They had no sack, no sandals, no money bag, and were to greet no-one. Nothing, nada, zilch. My mind is having difficulty wrapping my head around that, but that is what Christ told them to do. He wanted complete dependence on Him. He wanted them to serve others with humility. He wanted them to bring people to faith in Him without the extra baggage, without adornments, without accessories. He wanted them to understand that all things come from God. And that is the same message He wants us to hear today. He wants us to spread the faith like his disciples. And when He says to trust in Him, he is talking about total and complete trust. He will provide for us. He nourishes our minds, bodies, and souls in the Eucharist every Sunday, and would do so every day if we only present ourselves to Him. So... What are you packing in your bag?

The Family Life Food Pantry volunteers would like to express our deep appreciation to the St. Anthony Parishioners for your continuing support and contributions. In order for the Family Life Food Pantry to continue this ministry, we humbly turn to you to ask for your continued support. Your financial donations are a blessing to the people in need in our community. Please be assured that we are exploring other funding opportunities to help with this critical need. May God richly bless you as you have blessed others. Thank You.

Prayer for the Jubilee Year of Hope:

Father in Heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our redeemer throughout the earth. To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever. Amen. (Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, adapted from the Jubilee Prayer by Pope Francis.)

SACRED SILENCE IN CHURCH

Please remember to maintain a sacred silence when you are in the main body of the church, especially before Mass. This allows others to pray and sets a very important example for the younger members of our community who are still learning about the sacred nature of the church. If you need to talk with someone, simply move to the vestibule, or into one of the side areas and make sure that the door is closed behind you.

You may converse with each other after the completion of the mass in sanctuary.
Thank you.

Bulletin & Mass Announcements — The deadline this week for bulletin announcements is Wednesday at 12:00 p.m. & for Mass announcements is Friday at 9:00 a.m. Thank you!

Meditation: God's word grows like a seed within us—In like manner, the word of God is sown in the hearts of receptive men and women who hear his word, accept it with trust and obedience, and then share the abundant fruit of God's word in their life with others. The harvest Jesus had in mind was not only the gathering in of the people of Israel, but all the peoples (and nations) of the world. John the Evangelist tells us that "God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life" (John 3:16).

Be a sower of God's word of peace and mercy—What does Jesus mean when he says his disciples must be "lambs in the midst of wolves"? The prophet Isaiah foretold a time when wolves and lambs will dwell in peace (Isaiah 11:6 and 65:25). This certainly refers to the second coming of the Lord Jesus when all will be united under the Lordship of Jesus after he has put down all of his enemies and established the full reign of God over all the heavens and the earth. In the meantime, the disciples must expect opposition and persecution from those who would oppose the Gospel. Jesus came to set us free from the power of sin, Satan, and death by laying down his life for us as our sacrificial lamb (John 1:29), to atone for our sins and the sins of the world. We, in turn, must be willing to offer our lives with gratitude and humble service for our Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ.

Jesus gave his disciples instructions for how they were to carry out their ministry. They must go and serve others without guile (free of deceit and craftiness), full of charity (selfless giving in love for the good of others), peace, and simplicity. They must give their full attention to the proclamation of God's kingdom and not be diverted by other lesser things. They must travel light - only take what was essential and leave behind whatever would distract them - in order to concentrate on the task of speaking the word of the God. They must do their work, not for what they can get out of it, but for what they can give freely to others, without expecting reward or payment. "Poverty of spirit" frees us from greed and preoccupation with possessions and makes ample room for God's provision. The Lord Jesus wants his disciples to be dependent on him and not on themselves.

Jesus ends his instructions with a warning: If people reject God's invitation and refuse his word, then they bring condemnation on themselves. When God gives us his word there comes with it the great responsibility to respond. Indifference will not do. We are either for or against God in how we respond to his word.
