Father Thomas' Message Corner

We cannot fully grasp the mystery of the Holy Trinity, even though we know it to be true. Our human brains are not equipped for that level of understanding. God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit, three persons in one. How can that be? And yet it is so. We open up our hearts to God asking Him to grant us the grace of understanding so that we might fully comprehend the mystery. But it is not yet our time. Right now we believe, and that is enough. God will open our eyes, our minds, our hearts with total understanding at His appointed time. Until then simply believe and know for He has said it is so.

Today as we honor our Heavenly Father, we also honor our Earthly Fathers that God has entrusted us to. We look to our Fathers as pillars of the family. They are a source of instruction or correction as the need might be. Godly men will recognize our Heavenly Father's guidance in their own lives and bring their families to faith in Christ. We wish all fathers' celebrating here or with our Lord, a blessed, happy Father's day.

Fr. Thomas would like to extend prayers of gratitude to each of you for praying for his father.

He is recovering and healing from his surgery in May. Our glorious Savior has heard your prayers. May God's blessings be on each of you.

SACRED SILENCE IN CHURCH

Please remember to maintain a sacred silence when you are in the main body of the church, especially before Mass. This allows others to pray and sets a very important example for the younger members of our community who are still learning about the sacred nature of the church. If you need to talk with someone, simply move to the vestibule, or into one of the side areas and make sure that the door is closed behind you.

You may converse with each other after the completion of the mass in sanctuary.
Thank you.

Bulletin & Mass Announcements — The deadline this week for bulletin announcements is Wednesday at 12:00 p.m. & for Mass announcements is Friday at 9:00 a.m. Thank you!

Meditation: How can we know God personally and grow in our understanding of his wisdom, truth, and love for us? Jesus made a claim which only God can make - he knows all things - the present and the past, as well as the future. Jesus not only claims to speak the truth, he calls himself the very source of truth when he proclaims that he is the way, the truth and the life (John 14:6). Now Jesus promises to send his disciples the Spirit of truth who will guide them in understanding all that Jesus came to say and do! Jesus tells his disciples that it is the role of the Holy Spirit to reveal what is true. It is through the gift and working of the Holy Spirit, who enlightens our hearts and minds, that we come to understand that the Godhead is a trinity of persons - Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

One Father, One Son, and One Holy Spirit perfectly united
The Jews understood God as Creator and Father of all that he made (Deuteronomy 32:6) and they understood Israel (the promised son and his heirs) as God's firstborn son (Exodus 4:22). Jesus reveals the true nature of God the Father in an unheard of sense. He is eternally Father by his relationship to his eternal and only-begotten Son, who, reciprocally, is Son only in relation to his Father (see Matthew 11:27). The Spirit, likewise, is inseparably one with the Father and the Son. Jesus reveals the triune nature of God and the inseparable union of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

The mission of Jesus and the Spirit is one
The mission of Jesus and of the Holy Spirit are the same - to reveal the glory of God and to share that glory with us by uniting us in a community of love with the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. That is why Jesus tells his disciples that the Spirit will reveal the glory of the Father and the Son and will speak what is true. Before his Passover, Jesus revealed the Holy Spirit as the 'Paraclete' and Helper who will be with Jesus' disciples to teach and guide them "into all the truth" (John 14:17,26; 16:13). The ultimate end, the purpose for which God created us, is the entry of God's creatures into the perfect unity of the blessed Trinity. In baptism we are called to share in the life of the Holy Trinity here on earth in faith and after death in eternal light.
