Father Thomas' Message Corner

The Holy Trinity - One God. God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit. God whom our hearts yearn for. Our God - who is slow to anger and rich in his kindness of forgiveness. Our God who chose to send His only begotten son to be a sacrifice for a sinful world in order to redeem the world. As loving Father, God wants us to come running home to Him, like little children do when their parents come home from work. He longs for us to love and trust Him that all things are for our good, but like disobedient teenagers we stray. It is in those moments when He must correct us, gently steering us homeward. Through the gift of His only begotten Son, Jesus, our Father gave us the means to come home. To believe in Christ deep within the recesses of our hearts, and outwardly live as children of God, we are given the gift of salvation. The Holy Spirit works within our hearts on the unending task to nudge us back on the path that will one day lead us home. For now, we must open our hearts to Jesus and believe, continually working not to stray, and asking for forgiveness when we do.

Meditation: What does Scripture tell us about God and how he relates to us? When God met with Moses on Mount Sinai and made a covenant with the people of Israel, he revealed the nature of his character and his personal love for them:

"The LORD passed before him, and proclaimed, "The LORD, the LORD, a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in mercy and faithfulness"" (Exodus 34:6).

God is all-loving, faithful, merciful, and forgiving by nature. God's love is supreme because it directs, orders, and shapes everything he does.

Love and judgment

Scripture tells us that God is all just and all loving. How does his love and justice go together? God opposes sin and evil with his just wrath (his righteous anger) and right judgment - and he approaches sinful people and evil doers with mercy ("slow to anger" and "ready to forgive") and discipline ("fatherly correction" and "training in righteousness"). John the Evangelist tells us that the Father sent his Son into the world - not to condemn but to redeem - not to destroy but to heal and restore. Paul the Apostle tells us that "the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Romans 6:23). God does not desire the death of anyone (Ezekiel 18:23,32, Ezekiel 33:11, Wisdom of Solomon 1:13). Instead he gives us the freedom to choose between life and death - good and evil.

Jesus took upon himself all of our sins and nailed them to the cross (Colossians 2:14). His death was an atoning sacrifice for our sins and a perfect offering to the Father on our behalf. We can find no greater proof of God's love for fallen sinful humanity than the cross of Jesus Christ. "To ransom a slave God gave away his Son" (from an early Christian hymn for the Easter vigil liturgy). Jesus' mission was motivated by love and obedience. That is why he willingly laid down his life for us. Jesus told his disciples that there is no greater love than for a person to willingly lay down his or her life for a friend (John 15:13). Jesus loved us first - even while we were captives to sin and Satan - in order to set us free and make us friends and beloved children of God.
