Pentecost

The Church celebrates Pentecost (so called because it is fifty days after Easter Day) as the day on which the Holy Spirit descended upon the apostles, gathered in an upper room with Mary, mother of Jesus, "as a mighty, rushing wind," fulfilling Jesus' promise when He "breathed on them," as recorded in John's Gospel (Chapter 20).

This event, which marks the beginning of the Church, is recorded in the book of Acts of the Apostles, Chapter 2. The 14th-century Siennese painting by Duccio (left) illustrates the moment when the Bible says the Spirit descended upon the gathering of Christians in the form of tongues of fire. The liturgical color for Pentecost is red, a reminder of the flames that "rested on them." Another symbol for the Holy Spirit is the dove, usually emitting golden rays of light.

The Holy Spirit gave the apostles gifts of grace through which they would undertake the evangelical mission of the Church. On the day of Pentecost, the apostles were given the miraculous "gift of tongues" - so that everyone from every country understood the Christians' inspired message of salvation as if they were hearing it in their own languages. Thousands were converted by the preaching of Peter and the other apostles.

Called Whitsunday (white Sunday) in England, for the white garments worn by confirmands (candidates for Confirmation), Pentecost, or the Feast of Weeks, originated as a Jewish festival fifty days (seven weeks) after Passover.

The Solemnity of Pentecost ends the Easter season. After Pentecost, the Easter candle is kept in the baptistery or near the baptismal font, and is lighted only for a baptism. For centuries, the Sundays of the Catholic Church year between Pentecost and Advent were numbered as "after Pentecost." Since the Second Vatican Council, this period is called "Ordinary Time" (the first period of Ordinary Time is that between the Epiphany and Lent). Three solemnities are celebrated in the weeks immediately following Pentecost: Trinity Sunday, Corpus Christi (The Body and Blood of Christ) and the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Lorie's Music Notes

On this Feast of Pentecost, we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit to the apostles and to us as well! We ask the Holy Spirit to descend upon us so that we may be filled with the passion to continue the work of Christ. Pentecost, so named because it is 50 days after Christ's resurrection, is the official end of the Easter Season. Veni, Sancte Spiritus! (Come, Holy Spirit!)

Mostly adults from St. Boniface Parish, Evansville, Indiana will give to area needy with building and repair projects June 8—15. The St. Scholastica Parish and youth group from Pennsylvania will work on other projects from June 23—29. It is a huge commitment for them, their parishioners who help financially, as well as OLV's Jim & Laurie Felber, and many others. We gratefully appreciate their efforts to help those in need!

NEW TO THE PARISH? Welcome! We would like to extend a special welcome to all our new parishioners. Please feel free to come by the office to meet the parish staff. Please also visit both of our parish websites at stanthonywv.com or ourladyofthehills.com to learn more about the activities happening in our parish and diocese.

How To Dispose of Blessed Items?

The proper disposal of votive candles and other devotionals, if they have been blessed, is to burn or to bury them, most preferably the former in the case of candles. Letting candles burn down entirely, or, if this presents a hazard should the glass candle holders break, burn them by themselves.

It is not a sin to throw away blessed items, but out of proper respect, one should dispose of them in this way. If devotionals have not been blessed, such as some of the holy cards and such that come through the mail, those are simply pictures and can be thrown away.

If you feel uncomfortable throwing them away, you can burn them as well.

What are the three intentions of the priest when he offers Holy Mass?

When the priest offers Holy Mass, he:

- offers the Mass reverently and validly in accord with the norms of the Church.
- offers the Mass in union with the whole Church and for the good of the whole Church.
- offers the Mass for a particular intention, such as the repose of the soul of someone who has died.

“In our lives there are crosses, there are difficult moments. But in these difficult moments we feel that the Holy Spirit helps us to go forward and to overcome the difficulties.”

Sowing Seeds of HOPE

We are called, as one body in Christ, to reach beyond ourselves to give hope to others, particularly in our parish and local community. The Catholic Sharing Appeal is one vehicle that enables us to do just that.

At Our Lady of the Hills Parish, we have already raised $2,960 which is 54% of the parish goal. This is a tremendous opportunity for our church. Every dollar going forward, will be returned to our parish for ongoing maintenance and repairs to the church grounds including our rental properties.
