The Son of Man Is Lord of the Sabbath

Meditation: What does the commandment "keep holy the Sabbath" require of us? Or better yet, what is the primary intention behind this command? The religious leaders confronted Jesus on this issue. The "Sabbath rest" was meant to be a time to remember and celebrate God's goodness and the goodness of his work, both in creation and redemption. It was a day set apart for the praise of God, his work of creation, and his saving actions on our behalf. It was intended to bring everyday work to a halt and to provide needed rest and refreshment.

The Lord of the Sabbath feeds and nourishes us

Jesus' disciples were scolded by the scribes and Pharisees, not for plucking and eating corn from the fields, but for doing so on the Sabbath (Mark 2:24). In defending his disciples, Jesus argues from the Scriptures that human need has precedence over ritual custom.

When David and his men were fleeing for their lives, they sought food from Ahimelech the priest (1 Samuel 21:1-6). The only bread he had was the holy bread offered in the Temple. On every Sabbath morning twelve loaves were laid before God on a golden table in the Holy Place. Each loaf represented one of the twelve tribes of Israel. No one was allowed to eat this bread except the priests because it represented the very presence of God. In their hunger and need for physical nourishment and strength, David and his men ate of this bread which Ahimelech offered to them.

The Lord of the Sabbath offers us true rest, refreshment, and healing

When Jesus entered the synagogue with his disciples on the Sabbath (Mark 3:1), the scribes and Pharisees watched Jesus very intently to see if he would perform some work of healing. They wanted to catch Jesus in the act of breaking the Sabbath ritual of ceasing from work so they might accuse him of breaking God's law. In a few penetrating words Mark the Evangelist tells us that Jesus looked at them with anger, and grieved at their hardness of hearts (Mark 3:5). Jesus taught with divine authority that the Sabbath rest did not exclude showing mercy and care for those in need. And he backed up his teaching with the miraculous sign of healing the man who had a withered hand.

The legal scholars (scribes) and religious-minded Jews (Pharisees) were filled with fury and contempt for Jesus because they put their own judgment of right and wrong above God and his intention for the commandments and teaching on holiness, mercy, and forgiveness. They were ensnared in their own legalism because they did not understand or see the purpose of God for the Sabbath commandment (remember the Sabbath day - to keep it holy - Exodus 20:8). Jesus shows their fallacy by pointing to God's intention for the Sabbath: to do good and to save life rather than to do evil or to destroy life (Mark 3:3).
